HINDENBURG PLANS STRATEGIC RETREAT

Positions Also Captured on Mile Front in the Arras Sector

(International News Service.)

London, June 15.—Blows struck by Gen. Haig in the offensive along the Belgian border during the night advanced the British lines to a depth of 500 to 1,000 yards along a 7-mile front, the British war office announced today.

The attack carried the British into German front line trenches between the river Lys and the river Warnave.

Redoubling the force of his attack in the Arras sector, Gen. Haig reported he had taken important positions on a mile front from the German defenders.

(International News Service.)

London, June 15.—More than 600 square miles of territory occupied by the Germans in Belgium and France has been reclaimed by the British, it was officially announced in the house of commons this afternoon. Since the beginning of the war it was stated that the British have captured 76,067 German prisoners.

Petrograd, June 15.—While members of the two American commissions to Russia were being formally presented to the provisional government today, new difficulties were arising about them in the form of expressed dissatisfaction with President Wilson's note.

The official organ of the council of workmen's and soldiers' delegates criticises the note, declaring President Wilson is mistaken if he thinks his ideas will find reception in the hearts of a revolutionary people.

HALF BILLION IN EXCESS OF AMOUNT IS NATION'S RESPONSE

Secretary McAdoo Announces Success of Gigantic Financial Undertaking

BONDS LISTED ON NEW YORK EXCHANGE

Local Subscriptions Heavy. L. & N. Shops Buy
$20,400 Worth of Patriotic Paper

(International News Service.)

New York, June 15.—The governing committee of the New York stock exchange today decided to commence trading in Liberty bonds at noon today.

(International News Service.)

Washington, June 15.—At 1:30 o'clock this afternoon Secretary McAdoo announced that the Liberty Loan had been oversubscribed. Although figures are not available at this time it is believed that half a billion dollars more than was asked will be America's answer to Germany and German military aggression.

Treasury department officials said this afternoon that the total subscription will be about $2,500,000,000.

The Twin Cities did their bit on the first Liberty Loan!

The total subscriptions to the loan by the cities of Albany and Decatur was $125,650 with several agencies to hear from.

At the time the Daily went to press this afternoon the subscriptions from the four banks and the employees of the Louisville & Nashville shops stood as follows:

City National Bank.....	$47,300
Central National	26,000
Morgan County National....	20,850
Tennessee Valley	10,000
L. & N. shop employees.....	20,400
Total	$125,650

The full subscription of the Tennessee Valley Bank is not reported in the above total and it is expected that the total subscription of the Twin Cities when all the figures from all the various bond selling agencies are in will amount to almost $150,000.

The Twin Cities oversubscribed their quota of the Liberty Loan just as the Twin Cities always furnish their quota when Uncle Sam calls for either money or men. Citizens generally were very much pleased with the result of the Liberty Loan campaign here. The investing of this money will mean the distribution by the government of more than $5,000 in interest here each year as well as the benefit that will be derived by the citizens from the knowledge that they are actively fighting the kaiser with their dollars.

One of the pleasing features of the subscriptions for the Liberty Loan here was that a vast majority of the subscriptions came in small amounts. Most of the bonds sold here were for

FRANCE PLEASED WITH 'BLACK JACK'

WHIRLWIND ENERGY OF AMERICAN LEADER MAKES GOOD IMPRESSION.

(International News Service.)

Paris, June 15.—General Pershing will "fit in" and the millions behind him will be real fighting men. Such is the conviction among military men and civilians after making the acquaintance of the commander of the first American expeditionary force. The whirlwind energy and the silence of the American commander as well as the members of his staff, who are already at work, has made a favorable impression everywhere.

Typical of the attitude of the French nation was the declaration of Premier Ribot, when Pershing appeared in the house of deputies. He declared that his coming to France "marks the first chapter in the history of the constitution of a society of nations."

Quick action from the American general and the nation behind him is generally predicted.

Declaration by Gen. Pershing that he is joyful at the prospect of getting to work immediately, indicated today that the American commander will soon be at the front. He is expected to make an extended tour of the entire fighting district.

Pershing and his staff were guests of Marshal Joffre at the military club today.

SKEGGS CHAIRMAN ALBANY COMMITTEE TO RAISE FUNDS FOR RED CROSS

MAYOR PAYNE NAMES FIVE LEADING MEN TO HELP RAISE THE HUNDRED MILLION.

In conformity with the proclamation of President Wilson, and at the request of the Red Cross, Mayor E. C. Payne has named a committee of five to take charge of the campaign to be waged locally for Red Cross funds during the week ending June 25.

The Red Cross has undertaken to raise $100,000,000 as a war fund, and has called upon American citizens everywhere to go down into their pockets and aid in this work.

The Albany campaign committee, as announced by Mayor Payne, follows: Wm. E. Skeggs, chairman; W. A. Bibb, H. B. Beard, A. A. Hardage, C. J. Bodemer.

The committee has been requested by Mayor Payne to meet at once for organization.

PROCLAMATION OF RED CROSS WEEK.

Inasmuch as our thoughts as a nation are now turned in united purpose towards the performance to the utmost of the services and duties which we have assumed in the cause of justice and liberty.

Inasmuch as but a small proportion of our people can have the opportunity to serve upon the actual field of battle, but all men, women and children alike may serve and serve effectively by making it possible to care properly for those who do serve under arms at home and abroad.

And inasmuch as the American Red Cross is the official recognized agency for voluntary effort in behalf of the armed forces of the nation and for the administration of relief.

Now, therefore, by virtue of my authority as president of the United States and president of the American Red Cross, I, Woodrow Wilson, do hereby proclaim the week ending June 25, 1917, as Red Cross Week during which the people of the United States will be called upon to give generously and in a spirit of patriotic sacrifice for the support and maintenance of this work of national need.

BIGGEST PAYROLL FOR YEARS COMES TO LOCAL L. & N. MEN

Pay Day Brings Full Envelopes, With Back
Time and Overtime Included

Increased wages and a shorter working day were both brought prominently to the attention of the two thousand employees of the local shops of the Louisville & Nashville railroad today, which is "pay day." The checks were the largest received for a long while, and the aggregate of the pay roll broke the records of many years.

Included in the pay checks was the advance and over time announced for May, which had not been figured up in time to be included in the previous pay roll. During that period in May when the mechanics worked 10 hours, with time and a half for overtime, they received pay for 11 hours at 48 cents per hour, or $5.28 per day. Many of the mechanics have pay checks nearing the $75 mark.

Although no official announcement to that effect had been posted, the entire shop force is now being paid on an 8-hour basis, with substantial increases over the old wages. The shorter hours and wage increases were granted by the road of its own volition, and are as high as are paid for the same class of work under similar conditions anywhere in the nation.

CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME;

WHAT OF THE HOSPITAL?

A homely adage—"charity begins at home"—has well stated a local condition.

It is a beautiful sight to see the manner in which the citizens of Albany and Decatur are responding to the calls for help of the American Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A. war work, the various relief societies that carry food and medicine to the stricken lands of the old world and the scores of other worthy causes. That the citizens should aid these causes is right and just.

But what of the Benevolent Hospital? It has had its S. O. S. signal flying for weeks in an effort to raise $2,000 with which to pay off the present indebtedness of the institution and allow it to be operated on a basis of continued efficiency and attention to worthy charity cases. Something has been raised for this purpose by the ladies of the Benevolent society, but the need has not yet been fully met. Much more money is needed. The work of raising the needed $2,000 has just started.

Here is a situation that calls for the first dollars, in the estimation of the Daily, that are to be spent for charitable purposes. Unless help comes to the ladies who are handling the affairs of the hospital in such an admirable manner there is no telling what will become of the hospital. When $2,000 will guarantee the continuation of the hospital management upon such a high plane it is a very small price to pay.

The Daily does not desire to be misunderstood about the matter. The Daily would be deeply chagrined if it were to come back to us tomorrow from those interested in other charity work in the Twin Cities that "the Daily is fighting us." The Daily is doing no such thing. It recognizes that the Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A. and the others mentioned above are doing magnificent work for the country and for the cause of humanity. They should be helped in every possible manner. But the Daily is asking that our own institution, the Benevolent hospital in which every local citizen should feel a degree of pardonable pride, is not allowed to suffer because of other demands upon the purse of the citizenship. The Twin Cities have plenty of money to supply all the needs of these social service and charity organizations.

Let us open the strings of our purse wider so as not to shirk any of the needs of mankind. But let us first make the Twin Cities safe for humanity. Let us not forget the Benevolent hospital.

HUNTSVILLE'S TROUBLES.

Huntsville seems to be in a perpetual turmoil. Like the population of a famous western mining camp "it is first one thing and then another." Now there is some sort of a scrap about which we have tried faithfully to learn, but the Huntsville papers seem to contend themselves with touching only the outer edges and implying a lot more.

The esteemed Huntsville Mercury, always militant, advises "let's have peace and quiet if we have to ride

The World War a Year Ago Today—June 15.

Von Rothen's German army repulsed Russian attacks in Bukovina.

French captured a trench on Dead Man's hill two-thirds of a mile long.

some of our disturbers on a rail to tar and feathers."

That may be the way to declare peace in Madison county, but the truce would only be a state of armed neutrality. Whenever the panacea for the ills of Huntsville is found—and we have nothing to suggest—it will doubtless include some powerful portion to make the patient work more and talk less. Too much loose and irresponsible talk is the trouble in Madison county. In suggesting this the Daily has no reference to any faction of Madison county politics or any man or group of men in Madison county. Too much talk seems to be a community failing.

The murder of English non-combatants, children and women especially, continues to be popular pastime with the German airmen. Reprisals may not be ear marks of an advanced civilization, but they can be justified on the ground of self-preservation, which remains the highest law of nature.

The attention of the Alabama delegation in congress should be called to the fact that Georgia, especially over about Atlanta, seems to get designated every time the federal government decides to locate anything.

The pull of some congressman is attested by the location of one of the 16 army cantonments at Yaphank, Long Island, N. Y.

Perishing dined in Paris ahead of the Kaiser, thus further upsetting the cold calculations of a certain war lord.

The selection of President Wilson as the allied spokesman assures the literary excellence of official declarations regarding the war.

Just In Passing

BATTLESHIP AS NAVAL STATION.

"The Daily published a picture on Thursday afternoon that was deeply interesting to me," said Clyde Hendrix of the Tennessee Valley bank. "It was the picture of the great battleship that is being built in Union Square, New York, as a recruiting station. I went through the ship on a trip to New York last week and of course was interested in the picture. The ship is rigged up completely and each department of a battle cruiser is shown. It is to be used as a recruiting station and is 250 feet long."

GHOST AT B CAMP!

"There is a ghost who nightly perambulates around the camp of Company B, Second Alabama Infantry," said Lieutenant Richard Kelley of Birmingham, one of the company officers. "It has just begun to do its stunts during the last night or so for the especial benefit of Frank, the very black Afro-American who is attached to the company in the unofficial capacity of mascot. Three or four of the boys have been framing up on Frank and he is firmly convinced that a ghost haunts the tents of the soldiers. Last night he saw a white object in one tent. It was one of the soldiers with a sheet over him, but the little negro acted like the German line in retreat. He got entirely out of the camp zone in about two seconds. Tonight the boys are planning to work the old trick of a rosin string and tomorrow night they have some phosphorus from a local drug store to paint a sheet with. Such are soldier amusements in these days guarding bridges and waiting for the call to the colors."

MANY ATTEND THE REUNION.

"There must have been fifty or seventy-five people from this congressional district who attended the Confederate reunion at Washington," said Postmaster W. E. Crawford of Decatur. "I knew twenty-five or thirty people from this community who went and there were a great many more. Everybody from Alabama had a good time and the Alabama senators and congressmen were unusually nice to the visitors. The man who said the old veterans were not greeted cordially in Washington was mistaken, although I understand he is a very reputable and long experienced newspaper man of Washington who serves a number of southern papers in Nashville, Birmingham, Atlanta, Knoxville, Chattanooga and other southern cities."

If you need a clerk, salesman, stenographer or any kind of help, the quickest way is a Daily want ad.

"VALUE CANNOT BE OVER ESTIMATED," SAYS CONTRACTOR

COULDN'T DO ANY WORK FOR FOUR MONTHS BEFORE HE BEGAN ON TANLAC.

"I can't praise Tanlac too highly for all it has done for me," said J. L. McCafferty, a well-known builder and contractor of Memphis, Tenn., a few days ago.

"Last summer," continued Mr. McCafferty, "I had a spell of chills and fever, and after the fever wore off I was up and down—mostly down—not able to do any work to speak of for four months. I went under treatment but kept getting weaker and finally got so I could hardly climb the steps to my room. I was so nervous I couldn't sleep to do me any good and during the night I would have cramping spells in my limbs and had to get out of bed and rub and rub before I could get any relief. What I managed to eat didn't seem to give me any nourishment or strength and I was losing ground rapidly."

"I had several friends to recommend Tanlac to me, and one of them, I knew, had gotten fine results from it, so I sent and got me a bottle. Why, in just two or three days I began to feel stronger and in less than a week I could climb the stairs and not feel tired and out of breath as I did before. I have about finished my fifth bottle now and have gained twenty-five pounds or more and feel good and strong and have been at work regularly ever since I reached the third bottle. I can eat just anything set before me now and I always relish my meals and feel refreshed and stronger afterwards."

"Tanalac has done all this for me and it is the only thing that ever reached my case. I don't think the value of Tanlac can be over estimated and I am glad to make this statement which I hope will be of benefit to others."

Tanalac is sold in Albany exclusively by Preuit-Dillehay Drug Co.; in Decatur by Decatur Drug Co.; in Trinity by O. E. Young Drug Co.; in Flint by C. E. Poole & Co.; in Priceville by J. E. Matthews; in Sonerville by W. T. Ransom, and in Danville by B. S. Stover. (Adv.)

HUNTSVILLE DROPS FIRST GAME BY SCORE 11 TO 2

Russell Held Visitors With Ease, While Mitwede Did Fearful Execution With Bludgeon

In a game replete with thrills the Y. M. C. A. defeated Huntsville here yesterday afternoon 11 to 2. Russell, who twirled for the locals had the visitors at his mercy. Sparkman, Huntsville pitcher, was hit at will and nothing but the fast fielding of his team mates held the score down. No less than six double plays were made during the game.

The shining light of the game was "Dutch" Mitwede, who got two singles and a triple out of five times at bat. The flying Dutchman also made some stabs around third that looked almost impossible.

The game in detail:
FIRST—Branum struck out. Watson out, pitcher to first. Blanton struck out.

Halbrooks singled to center and was out at second when he tried to stretch the hit to a double. Frohoff doubled to center. F. Barnes hit into a double play, pitcher to first to third.

SECOND—Westbrooke flew out to center. J. Price grounded out, third to first. S. Price popped out to first. Midwede singled to right and was out at second when he tried to stretch it into a double. Williams out, second to first. Hill out, second to first.

THIRD—Sparkman struck out. Lewis singled to center. Crook fouled out to catcher. Lewis out stealing second.

E. Barnes hit a smashing three-sacker to center. Earp struck out. Russell walked. Halbrooks attempted to bunt and popped out to catcher who caught Barnes off third.

FOURTH—Branum walked and was out trying to steal second. Watson was safe when his fly to right went through Frohoff's hands. It was a hard chance and Frohoff made a great trial for it. Blanton flew out to center. Westbrooke hit to short and Watson was caught at second.

Fifth—Frohoff popped out to second. F. Barnes walked. Mitwede tripled to right and Barnes scored. Williams grounded to second and was thrown out at first. Mitwede scoring on the play. Hill out, second to first.

SEVENTH—Lewis singled to center. Crook struck out. Branum struck out. Watson grounded out to first. Frohoff walked and stole second. F. Barnes out, pitcher to first. Mitwede singled to right and Frohoff scored. Hill grounded to third and all hands were safe on a try to catch Williams at the plate. Williams scoring. E. Barnes hit into a double play, second to short to first.

EIGHTH—Blanton out, short to first. Westbrooke flew out to left. J. Price was safe when the center fielder muffed his fly. S. Price singled to left. Sparkman doubled to center. J. Price and S. Price scoring. Lewis out, second to first.

Earp struck out. Russell singled to center. Halbrooks flew out to right. Frohoff walked. F. Barnes singled to center, Russell scoring. Mitwede was safe when his high fly got by the first baseman, Frohoff scoring. Mitwede out trying to steal second.

EIGHTH—Crook out, pitcher to first. Branum hit to pitcher who threw wild to first. Watson hit to second, forcing Branum. Blanton singled to right. Watson attempting to take third on the play was thrown out.

Missed a Sale.

"It seems to me," said a Main street stationer, "that everybody's writing or dictating letters these days. Nine customers out of ten who come in here ask for postage stamps. This morning a woman was here browsing around. She looked over the entire stock. I thought I had a customer. After she finished the rounds she remarked: 'Oh, I nearly forgot. Have you any postage stamps?' I said yes and asked her how many she wanted. She handed me a wrapped newspaper and asked how much I thought it ought to have to carry it to its destination. I weighed the darned thing and told her a cent would be sufficient. 'Is that all?' she said. 'Well, I have a one cent stamp in my pocketbook. I thought I would come to you. Thank you very much.'—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Chills and Fever Not Only Signs of Malaria

Throughout the South, the thought of chills and fever has been so constantly associated with malaria that many people think them the only sign of that disease.

But as a matter of fact, nearly everyone living in a southern climate is more or less affected with malaria, though comparatively few suffer with chills and fever.

Perhaps the most common symptom of malarial poisoning is that "all-in," listless, lifeless feeling. If you feel that way, especially at this time of the year, it will be well for you to take a few doses of Quinotone, a tonic prepared especially for the relief of malaria, and thus avoid the attack of chills and fever that might otherwise follow.

Quinotone is a pleasantly flavored vegetable preparation. It contains no arsenic or quinine sulphate, nor is it necessary for you to take calomel or blue mass with it. Yet it is more prompt in effect than many remedies containing those drugs.

Many of your neighbors have taken it. They will tell you how good it is, how pleasantly it acts. It is guaranteed to please you or your money cheerfully refunded.

You can buy Quinotone in big 50-cent packages at Dillehay Brothers or other good drug stores.

Owing to the Decatur ladies putting on a dance Monday night, it has been decided to postpone the Albany Red Cross dance until Thursday, June 21. WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE THRIFT SERVICE

The Ballot and the Preserving Kettles Lined Up Together.

Falling in line with the offer of war service made by the National American Woman Suffrage Association to the President of the United States, various state suffrage associations have called their members into practical service.

The first act of the president of the Nebraska State Suffrage Association, Mrs. W. E. Barkley, was to line up her members in suffrage thrift clubs.

The state suffrage organization is awakening its members to the fact that Nebraska women can put up their own foodstuffs, and so free the produce of the canning factories for exportation or for the army, wherever, in fact, it will be most needed. "Will you preserve for future use double your usual quantity of foodstuffs?" is the question which has been added to the enrollment slips of the Nebraska suffragists.

About 1,500 tons of preserved food can now, on the present basis, be released, is the estimate made by thrift leaders. If each suffragist will double her supply, 3,000 tons may be expected from Nebraska's suffrage thrift effort.

Iowa is another state to take up thrift work. Under the direction of Ames College, one of the foremost agricultural colleges in the country, instructions in canning and preserving fruits and vegetables will be sent out to the suffrage societies through the state. Iowa is to conduct suffrage thrift cooking schools.

Both Pennsylvania and New Jersey women are mobilizing their fruit jars into service, knowing that presently there will be a famine in glass cans. Local suffrage headquarters in New Jersey towns will be experimenting stations, where experts in canning will show willing suffragists how to preserve fruits and vegetables in a scientific manner. A community canning center has been opened at No. 1721 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, under the direction of Mrs. E. E. Keenan, State Chairman of Suffrage Agriculture for Pennsylvania. A drying machine for drying apples, corn and other vegetables will be installed at this headquarters so that by the end of the summer the Pennsylvania suffragists will be able to render immediate aid to the government.

Evolution and Immortality.

There is an element in evolution which endears it to me and to every man; I think it throws bright gleams on the question of immortality. I see that the unfolding series in this world are all the time from lower to higher, that the idea is not reached at any point, that the leaf works toward the bud, and the bud toward the blossom, and the blossom toward the tree, and that in the whole experience of human nature, and in the whole economy of the providence of God in regard to the physical world, everything is on the march upward and onward. And one thing is very certain, that neither in the individual nor in the collective mass has the intuition of God in the human conscience verified and fulfilled itself. The imperfection shows that we are not much further than the bud; somewhere we have a right to a presence of the blossom.—Henry Ward Beecher.

AMUSEMENTS

"HER BETTER SELF" AT THE MASONIC THEATRE SATURDAY

Pauline Frederick, the screen's greatest emotional actress, has temporarily forsaken her customary "heavy" roles and in her latest Famous Players-Paramount picture "Her Better Self" is seen as a young society butterfly in love with a very serious young doctor.

In this picture Miss Frederick has drawn a character-sketch of the very heart and life of this young girl that will live as one of her most remarkable pieces of work and rank with such of her masterpieces as "Sapho," "Audrey," "Zaza" and others, although differing widely from any of these.

The story deals with the way Vivian Tyler, pampered daughter of wealthy parents, successfully bridges the vast gulf of poverty which yawns between her and the man she loves who is a charity doctor.

Pauline Frederick has given an exceptionally fine interpretation of this difficult role and is most ably supported by a splendid cast including Thomas Meighan, who has been seen with Miss Frederick in most of her recent productions.

JIM SILAS HELD FOR THE MURDER WILL ROBINSON

TWO OTHER NEGROES CHARGED WITH COMPLICITY ARE RELEASED.

In a preliminary hearing this morning before Judge Frank J. Davis of the Decatur inferior court, Ed Houston and Rich Richardson, charged with complicity in the murder of Will Robinson, were released, while Jim Silas, held on the charge of murder, was remanded back to jail without bond to await the action of the grand jury.

The prosecution proved by several witnesses that on the night of the murder Silas was seen gambling with Robinson in the very room in which the killing occurred. Evidence was also introduced by the state showing that Silas was seen coming out of an alley back of the livery stable where the killing occurred between 4 and 5 o'clock on the morning of the murder. A bloody overall jumper found at Silas' home, and which the prisoner admitted belonged to him, was introduced by the state.

Willie Allen, a ragged negro street urchin, about 10 years old, sat in the witness chair and looked Silas square in the face and told the story which may send Silas to the penitentiary.

"Now tell the court just what you know," Deputy Solicitor Chas. Eyster told the bewildered little negro when he went on the stand.

While every eye in the audience was on him and every ear strained to catch his words he told his story.

"About three weeks ago," said the boy, "I wuz workin' for Will Robinson, the man what got killed. One Saturday night Jim come over shore and him and Will got to gambling. When Jim come out he was mad and told me Will had drawn a knife on him and took forty dollars away from him. But he said he was goin' to git even with him, and that's all I know."

Mr. Eyster picked one of a pair of dice found on the floor where the negro was killed and asked the boy if he knew who they belonged to.

"Yassir," the boy replied, "them's Jim's dice."

Silas claims he knows nothing of the killing and on the night of the murder he was out in the country at a negro supper.

The Liberty Loan Is Oversubscribed

$50 and $100, thus showing that the government I. O. U.'s were widely distributed among the average well-to-do and financially poorer citizens. This was one of the democratic features of the loan that the government greatly desired to be accomplished.

Washington, D. C., June 15.—Early today indications were that the Liberty loan would be oversubscribed by at least half a billion dollars, and the treasury department made that estimate.

The exact total, however, it is believed will not be available until very late tonight. Subscriptions closed at 12 o'clock standard time, which means that when the lists are closed at noon at San Francisco, it will then be 3 o'clock at Washington. As the totals must then be telegraphed to the federal reserve centers and thence to Washington, some delay is inevitable.

Already the question of when the next loan will be called for is being discussed by officials. When the initial loan was decided upon the treasury department said that the loans would be asked for at intervals of about three months each. Whether the next total will be for two billion dollars will be decided by Secretary McAdoo after the present loan is complete.
